MEMORANDUM FOR: Senior Review Panel Members
FROM: Director of Central Intelligence
SUBJECT: Comparative Look at National Estimate Production

1. Let me first apologize for the delay in acknowledging your excellent comparative look at national intelligence production. It is really a first-class job. One reason I didn't respond earlier is that I had in mind asking you to supplement your job by listing somehow among the innovations new art forms that have stemmed out of the national estimating process like:

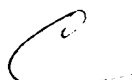

-- Vulnerability study [redacted] and others
they turn out in the NIC.

25X1

-- Evaluations of various scenarios for change which have been done [redacted]

2. Again, thanks for doing a good and important job so quickly and well.

William J. Casey

SUBJECT: [REDACTED] Scenarios of Dramatic Political Change [REDACTED]

1. This memorandum presents a number of possible scenarios that could lead to dramatic change [REDACTED] It thus complements Intelligence Community assessments and estimates that focus on probable further developments [REDACTED] The analysis, purposely provocative, aims to make explicit and bring to the forefront of our thinking the diversity of challenges that could threaten the regime in the years to come. Because the analysis out of context is susceptible to misunderstanding, external distribution has been severely restricted. Please limit circulation in your office and do not reproduce the document. Your thoughts on the analysis and suggested indicators are welcome. [REDACTED]
